Narrated by: Joe Hempel. BIG difference. She began dancing flamenco when she was seven years old, and has studied dance in New York and Granada. A new social science is forming, a new social art developing that much is surely becoming plain to every observer of contemporary social evolution ; and what press and parliaments are beginning to see to-day, even the most backward of town councils, the most submissive of their voters, the most indifferent of their tax-payers, will be sharply awakened to to-morrow. The only thing that cannot be idealized is mediocrity, but there is nothing seductive about mediocrity.
