Immediately, I can bump the G and E chords off the list because the melody note is not found in those chords and would sound very tense played along with the melody. After being double-crossed by a tantalizing temptress who took his money, Brian is good and licked. However, the fact is there is no sound reason for this book to have been written in the first place. Boxing has always been said to be on the ropes for one reason or another over its many eras, and I am sure it would still remain the status quo.
